“ When I accepted a position with the Bedard Bros Honda company Mr Mitchell was one of the salespeople on staff at that time.. He was one of the most welcoming people I have ever met in my life. Ron was always working in the best interest of the customer and would always assist his fellow salesperson. Customers would seek him out to share stories of their life and ask him his opinion on life matters. He was a true community person and advocate for the Bedard Honda. When Ron retired he was truly missed by his co-workers. Upon his passing America has lost a wonderful citizen.
