“ I'm so sorry to her of the passing of Sally. I just now found out. I met Sally on some forums on the internet. We shared the passion for crafting. I even got to meet her when she came to Ohio with her sister Susan. Love and Prayers to you all. She had such a kind heart.

“ Dear folks as they say out here, Sally was a straight shooter, she told it like it was and I indereared her for that and her views on life .Many conversations were had. Had the chance to get her some fire wood once from a woodlot with her friend Paula and deliver it to her home, great time working with her. So with deep sadness of a dear friend I wish you folks my deepest condolences at your families loss. With heartfelt sympathy, Gerry Bartlett

“ Sally was our good friend and neighbor. She loved to share recipes, yard sale finds, and plant cuttings in the summer. She was warm hearted, enjoyed watching our nephews and nieces in the yard when they were visiting (especially Easter-egg hunts) and loved to share her sweets or flavor ice with them when she had it. She loved seeing all the Christmas decorations going up for the season. She will be missed. Our prayers are with her!

“ Rest in Peace Sally You will be missed. You shot straight from the hip, and always knew your stuff. A hard working, kind woman who had a heart of gold. May God hold you tenderly in the palm of his hands and take you safely home. I will miss you, my friend. My deepest sympathy to Sally's entire family. Hold tight to your love and memories, they will sustain you during this difficult time. With Sympathy, Pam Delmolino

“ We at Animal DREAMS are so sorry to hear of Sally's passing. We delivered cat food to her just after her stay in the hospital in early January. As usual, we talked about the outdoor cats she cared for, as well as her medical situation. She seemed optimistic about her health. We are shocked to hear of her death. She was a remarkable lady. Our prayers are with her family.

“ I met Sally when we were in the Navy together in Gulfport, Miss. She always said that I taught her how to be a secretary. We kept in touch all of these years following, up until early January when she talked of being sick and having been in the hospital. Over these past years we managed to see each other on two occasions, once when she visited me in Texas and when I visited her in Pittsfield. We maintained a close and wonderful friendship even though we mostly kept touch, initially by letter, and more recently by e-mail and Facebook. It is difficult to talk about her as I only saw her obituary literally minutes ago. Sally was a wonderful person whom I loved dearly. I am heartbroken to hear of her passing. For her family -- including her sons and granddaughters whom she loved -- I am so very sorry for your loss.
