“ So many of my childhood memories include Sandie and her energy, humor, and loyalty. I still remember the dance routine we made up for "Dancing Queen" and can imagine her showing off her moves in heaven. My deepest sympathies are being sent to her children and husband, and to Chris and Dave, and her many, many friends, all of whom I'm sure are heartbroken. May memories of her strength and love bring some measure of comfort.

“ I remember at my brothers funeral how you refused to let me ask about you and thinking how strong you were and how thankful I was that you were there to help my family cope and your words of strength that he was in a better place now and I know you are there as well. You were an amazing woman who spoke her mind and reminded me at times to be strong when I needed it most. I thank you for that and I know you are in a better place today. Your struggle I'm sure gave many people courage to be more like you. God's speed Sandie and thoughts and prayers to your family and beautiful children. Get them skates all ready for us up there!

“ I can't believe I am even doing this, or seeing this. I wish it were a bad dream!! You will be missed, by many. You fought this fight like no one else. You fought by telling everyone to get a mammogram and making sure that this wouldn't happen to any one else. I applaud you for that, and for all that you are. I will forever cherish the memories we had. I am sending many, many prayers for your family, I am sorry that they have to endure this. I hold my kids extra tight, for them and for yours.
