“ I am in shock and disbelief right now. It has been years since I last saw Shelley and I am so saddened by this. My heart and prayers goes out to Mikey & Kylie and family. Shelley and I became good friends when our boys were young. She was my ride to school at Mildred Elley everyday. We had some really fun times together. Such a beautiful soul gone too soon. RIP Shell Bell

“ Shelly's family and friends: As the days and weeks pass and as you return to life's routine, may you continue to feel comforted by the love and support of family and friends... Shelley's children: Death leaves a heartache no one can heal but love leaves a memory no one can steal. May you find comfort in knowing She is no longer suffering...Sending heartfelt thoughts of sympathy and support as your journey begins without her. May she rest in peace.

“ Shelley- From what I knew of you- you were a kind person, with a free-spirit; and most importantly, a loving mother to your children, whom it was clear you adored. You will be missed dearly by all that loved you, and I know you will be watching over your children. I am so sorry that your life was taken unexpectedly as such, but I know you are above, watching down and waiting to meet all of your loved ones again. With love, Meredith

“ Shelley, although its been since last year we ran into to each other, I will always remember you coming to my house and we would play when we were young. God I miss those days. You have grown into the beautiful women you are and now gone too soon. God bless your heart and give your children Michael and Kylie the strength to deal with such an abrupt sever from their mother. I will always keep you in my heart and wish you peace.

“ A daughter, a sister, a mother, is the person she was. Our deepest sympathy goes out to all the family suffering her loss. Life is an unexpected journey that we all experience, some longer than others. Those of us that are taken early, give those of us still here an opportunity to reflect on our own lives and be thankful for the time shared and the lessons learned. Cherish her memory in your hearts and remember her in love. God Bless, With all our love, her Central Florida Meehan Family
