“ Knowing Zig was like having a visual in present day life of what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ. Although his unexpected departure leaves a great void and ache in the lives of his family and friends, we grieve with the assurance of seeing him again. Daily thoughts and prayers are with you, Bev, and the whole family.

“ We will miss this true man of God and one of my real life heroes. He was a 1 Timothy christian who fought the good fight and kept the faith with a good conscience. He sought to live quietly and simply in all godliness and dignity, and he kept his speech, conduct, love, faith and purity out front for all to witness as an example of faith. The world, and now heaven, is a better place because of Sig.

“ I remember "Ziggy" from way back. We were in Renfrew School together all the way up thru high school, and graduated in 1958.

Zigmund was always a very nice person. I had not seen him for years and one day I needed the Gas Company. Who showed up but Ziggy. It was so nice to see him.
My deepest sympathy to his entire family. He was a fine person.

“ Dad, Father, Papa, a week ago today the Lord called you home. As you prepared your upcoming sermon for the week ,the Lord had you open your hymnal to the song " Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" THIS WAS A MIRACLE...It WAS God's plan.. KJV Matthew 25:21 says: Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: ENTER THOU INTO THE JOY OF THE LORD! I love you and miss you DAD, until we meet again!!!

“ I read this with sadness. I remember Cousin Butch well. And I still think about him. So many of the best memories of my youth were spent with him. I recall him tapping on my window at 4:30 in the morning to go ice fishing on Cheshire Lake. He would tap and whisper: "Nanook. Nanook. Wake up. We go fish fish". Or in summer on backwashes of the Housatonic after bullhead. Or in the basement of Chicks gathering shiners from his live bait operation. I remember him taking my sister and brother and I bowling and I recall him showing us a single he had just bought by a new duet: Simon & Garfunkel (Sounds of Silence on one side and Homeward Bound on the other). He was everything other comments here have already said. And so much more. I still recall running the length of a long line of tip-ups at Cheshire Lake just behind him and watching him grab the last length of singing line and hearing him say after it snapped: "That was a bass". When I was a kid, a call from Butch was my treat. How could you not miss a guy like that. Save us all a place up there Butch. How miserably sad to read this.

“ I have to add both Sig and Bev have been faithful to my ministry for 35 years. Always encouraging, supporting, praying. Bev and Sig both had an eye to see people come and accept the Lord. I'm proud that Mike has picked up that torch!!!!!!~

“ I was listening to Pastor Doug's sermon from September and found out that Sig had gone to be with the LORD. Sig played a major force in my life all through my years of ministry from the Philippines to Boston. Sig was such an example of living a life well for Jesus. I always felt so much love and care every time I saw Sig and Bev. I will miss him so much

“ Dale and Family,
We are so very sorry about your grandfather's passing. The suddenness stings deeply but take solace in knowing that your grandfather, through his strong faith, is resting at the right hand of God and will forever be watching, guiding and protecting you. Recall all the memories and he will be with you always. With deepest sympathy, Maureen, David and Corinne.

“ I never met you but my Mother was first cousin to your Dad Ziggy Sr. which made me 2nd cousin to Ziggy Jr. & my niece dated Dale, quite the small world. We will have a great family reunion up in heaven with us crazy Polish people playin poker aka penny ante, cuz that's all they could afford. I'll never forget that happy time when I was a kid watchin the antics at the table waiting for a penny to drop while my sister & I were under the table. A penny bought us lots of candy back then, rest in peace Ziggy Jr. until we finally meet in heaven.
