“ No words can express how incredibly sorry our family is to hear this incredibly sad news of Skylar's passing away, Paul, Cheryl and Celia, and extended family and friends. Julia was incredibly moved by her friendship with Skyler, and we will forever think of Skyler when watching The Lorax or singing karaoke. May Skyler's beautiful spirit soar with you all, each and every day, and may her death be not in vain. We never know the greater purpose of why a young life is cut short, but I do believe her legacy will inspire others to live life to the fullest. Our deepest condolences...,rest in peace, Skyler.
