Tribute Wall

“ Hello Joyce and family, I am Louise (Lulu) Webb's daughter, and I'm so sorry to learn of Sophie's passing. All of us really enjoyed getting to know Sophie at the Commons when Lulu was there. She had such spunk! And we will all remember how much fun we had when we took the portraits, and you brought Sophie and Helen to have theirs taken -- the pictures are wonderful. She was a remarkable woman with a great sense of humor. I'll be thinking of you all.
Fondly,
Carolyn Webb

“ Joyce & Jim,

What can we say...if it wasn't for your mother, there might not be a Penny & Steve. Remember all those nights on your front porch talking, laughing and eating pierogies? We sure do. And the Christmas Eves that we spent at your house, midnight mass then the feast of Polish foods, followed by those favorite cookies of Steve's (thumbprint cookies with jelly)? Your Mom was such a part of my growing up. She looks the same as I remember, and it's been a long time since I've seen her. We will say a prayer for her.
