

Thomas J. Malloy

May 4, 1937 - July 9, 2012

Mr. Thomas James Malloy, 75, of 10 Charles St., Adams, died on Monday, July 9, 2012. He was born in Adams on May 4, 1937, a son of the late James and Rita (Cross) Malloy. He attended schools in Adams.

Mr. Malloy was employed for many years for the Town of Cheshire Highway Department until retiring.

He was a communicant of St. Mary of the Assumption Church, Cheshire. He was a longtime member of the Eastern Draft Horse Association and had competed in numerous horse pulls. He also enjoyed hunting and fishing.

He is survived by his wife, the former Rosemarie Strack, whom he married on September 8, 1978;

3 Stepchildren;

4 Brothers - Paul and James Malloy, both of Cheshire, George Malloy of Adams and Edward Malloy of Plainfield;

7 Sisters - Joan Lagowski and Betty Jarvis both of Cheshire, Jean Jones of Salem, NY, Rita Beaudry and Judith Jolin, both of North Adams, Sylvia Noto of Pittsfield and Mary Carpenter of Williamstown.

He was predeceased by 2 Brothers, Alfred and Roy Malloy.

Funeral services and burial will be private at the convenience of the family.

There are no calling hours.

The PACIOREK FUNERAL HOME, 13 Hoosac St., Adams, is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Clarence and I want to send our condolences to the whole family during this difficult time.

July 11, 2012 at 12:00 AM