“ Vickie, I am so very sorry. The powerful parent/child bond is that of none other. The absolute underlying love, and that monumental desire which roars like an open fire inside us to protect that child at all costs, is fierce... Unless we have endured the loss of a child, our only child, we can not possibly begin to understand the intolerable soul destroying grief you must be feeling. I am truly unable to find any sort of words to express my heartfelt condolences to you and can only hope for your willingness to accept the love and support of your family and friends through your sorrow.
