“ Dear Jim and family, I extend to you my deepest sympathies for your loss. Although a light has gone out in our families, its glow remains in the form of our memories of her humor, and the good life lessons that she taught us. I remember Ciocia Tillie kindly looking after me while my mother (her sister, Bertha, aka "Honey") was in hospital during my grade school years. The lilting quality of her voice reminded me of Babci's.
