

Mr. Victor S. Ziemba

December 18, 1943 - April 8, 2020

Mr. Victor S. Ziemba, 76, of Adams, died Wednesday morning, April 8, 2020 at his home. He was born in Adams on December 18, 1943, a son of the late Stanley and Veronica (Pytko) Ziemba. He attended Adams schools, graduated from the former Adams High School with the Class of 1962, and received his Associate's Degree from the Stockbridge School of Agriculture at UMASS-Amherst in 1964.

Victor was a dairy farmer all of his life, and was an owner and operator of the family farm, Ziemba's Broadlawn Farm in Adams, working up until the time of his passing. He was a member of the Massachusetts Farm Bureau, and was an organizer and member of the former Adams Farmers softball team. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, and was an avid fan of the Boston Red Sox and New England Patriots. He had also served as a Fence Viewer for the Town of Adams for many years. He is survived by his former wife, Barbara A.

“ Vic was a class act. We played basketball together at Adams High. He had the coolest socks, knitted for him by one of his sisters. He was liked by all and had a wry sense of humor. I last saw him at our mini-reunion several years ago. He will be missed. Mike Higgins, Class of 1962.

“ Very sorry for your loss. Victor was a great man who always took a few minutes every time we saw him just to check in and see how we were doing. We appreciate the help we have received from your family in the past and would like to let you know that if there's anything we can do, please let us know.
