“ Aunt Vicky never forgot a birthday! The card she sent, embellished with her beautiful cursive script, was just a small expression of her kindness, elegance & grace. In their older years, after their husbands had passed, she and my mom Blanche had many adventures together and it was always such a pleasure to run into them at some event in the Berkshires. And if there was a Polish band involved, they were in heaven. I'm sure she's there now, dancing with the angels. God bless❤️ Thank you to her children & sister-in-law Ruth for giving her such great, loving care in her final days. Deb Hoellerich
