“ Remembering Bill as a true family man with warmth and tender stories that we shared at holiday feasts and special times at Brian and Barbara's homes. The laughter over card games will remain special and dear to our hearts. He will no doubt be missed by all.

“ Denise, Keith, Brian and the entire Howard Family, So sorry for your loss . Bill truly was a very great man, and when his obituary stated he was the ultimate family man, it could not be any more accurate . He was a wonderful Human Being and we both feel that we were so privileged. to have known him for all of these years . Keith and Brian, you are both great. and wonderful sons and its very easy to see how devoted you have been to both of your parents. It is very cliché, to say that great memories of happier times will help to sustain you through this very difficult time, but in this case we know it is true ! May Bill rest in peace, and may you all know that your new Guardian Angel will remain in your hearts , and will always be watching over you .

“ Denise & family, I was fortunate enough to meet Pepe/Bill for the time I was with Kevin. He exemplified what it meant to be a great husband, friend and companion. I have some wonderful memories with Kevin and Pepe just watching Jeopardy and talking nascar or basketball. God be with you all during this time. Sincerely, Stephanie Chiera
