“ Dear Eleanor, Bill, Bob, Nancy, and Peter, I was so saddened to hear of Bill's passing. He was one of the true good guys in this world. I only have the fondest memories of him and all of our times together on Walnut street and never remember hearing a cross word from him, even though we probably gave him plenty of reasons. I know his health issues in the last years had to have been hard for all of you. I hope that with some time, faith, and the support of your family and many friends your grief in his passing will be replaced by only good memories of the happiest times. My sincere condolences, Steve Strange
